September 6, 2024

VIA ECF

Hon. Jesse M. Furman United States District Judge Southern District of New York 40 Foley Square New York, New York 10007 For avoidance of doubt, the Court believes that it is prudent, if not required, to await the mandate in 20-CR-432. In light of that, the parties shall appear on September 25, 2024, albeit at 10 a.m. (not the time currently scheduled for sentencing). Sentencing is adjourned sine die. The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate Docket No. 319.

Re: United States v. Yaurel Centeno

22 Cr. 343 (JMF); 20 Cr. 432 (JMF)

SO ORDERED

Dear Judge Furman,

I represent Yaurel Centeno in the above-captioned matters. I write to (i) inform the Court that Mr. Centeno no longer wants me to represent him in these matters; (ii) request the Court schedule a conference to address Mr. Centeno's position; and (iii) request an adjournment of Mr. Centeno's sentencing in these matters currently scheduled for September 25, 2024.

On September 5, 2024, Mr. Centeno directed me to inform this Court that, effective immediately, he does not want me to represent him in these matters. Accordingly, I respectfully submit that an adjournment of Mr. Centeno's sentencing is necessary to address his position and, if ultimately necessary, appoint new counsel.

If the Court is inclined to set a conference, I am available on September 9th, 10th, and 11th and then again on September 24th in the afternoon and September 25th (the current date for sentencing).

Thank you for your consideration and attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Joshua D. Kirshner
